VOLUME I NUMBER VIII

JULY 2024– SEPTEMBER 2024

PRESIDING BISHOP'S EPISTLE

Praised be Jesus Christ!

Dearly beloved in Christ, I pray this Epistle finds all of you well! No doubt all of you are very busy preparing for an intense fall schedule. It is my privilege to offer this eighth Presiding Bishop's Epistle as we rapidly approach autumn 2024. This letter will provide a review of events from July through September of this year with a look ahead at future happenings.

It was my sheer joy and delight to solemnise the marriage of Father Randall Russell and Lisa Becksford at Saint Philip's Church, Blacksburg, Virginia on 20th July. We wish Father Randall and Lisa every grace and blessing from Our Lord as they begin their new life together. The wedding reception was held in a beautiful space at Lane Stadium of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, a unique and most thrilling experience. The next day, it was a gift once more to make an episcopal visitation and give Confirmations at Saint Philip's Blacksburg on 21st July.

From 29th July to 2nd August, we revelled in the fun, fellowship, community, and deliberations of our 56th Synod of the Diocese of the Eastern United States, sponsored by Saint John's Church, Greensboro, North Carolina and held at the Sheraton at Four Seasons Hotel, the largest conference centre between Washington, DC, and Atlanta. I wish to thank most profusely Archdeacon Mark Menees, Laura Bell, and all the faithful of Saint John's for a truly exceptional and glorious Synod, and Prebendary Erich Zwingert for his expert work in serving as Diocesan Synod Coordinator. Many of us joked about the wonderful aesthetics and size of the hotel, and how much exercise we all helpfully received that week! Our smart watches went apoplectic with the level of walking and miles tracked. The Synod was one of the most successful and gratifying we have ever encountered in the history of our Diocese. One must certainly note the Pontifical Solemn High Mass celebrated at the Phillips Chapel of the Canterbury School, Greensboro, a magnificently spacious gothic building ideal for the most advanced form of our sacred liturgy.

During our time together, we heard excellent presentations on the growth and expansion of the Kingdom of God and the Holy Catholic Church through the APA: we learned about the new property and building of Saint Gabriel's Church, Coral Springs, Florida with Father Scott Koszalinski, the new chapel of Saint James-on-the-Glebe Church, Gloucester, Virginia with Father Kevin Fife, the new mission of Saint Columba's Church, Shreveport, Louisiana with Deacon Jason McInnis, the Church merger at All Souls' Church, Asheboro, North Carolina with Father Michael Sclafani, the building project of Saint Paul's Church and School, Melbourne, Florida with Father Brian Oldfield, the building project of Holy Cross Church, Knoxville, Tennessee with Father Scott Greene, the building project and funding update of Saint Dunstan's Academy with Father Mark Perkins, and the All Saints Church and School, Mills River, North Carolina with Father Erich Zwingert. Outstanding progress is being made all over our holy Church and Diocese.

The theme for the 2024 Synod was 'Priesthood: Vocations for the Present and Future.' We urgently need more priests. Without more priests, we cannot staff our current Churches, and we will be unable to create new mission Churches. But there is no lack of enthusiasm in responding to the call of ministry when men are assured that the Church is sound and holds the Catholic and Apostolic Faith. The fact is that we are facing a demographic priest shortage, and that was the theme of our Synod this year. The shortage is developing now. Some might say that that could be a good problem to have, given our general growth, but the bottom line is that we need more priests and deacons, good and holy priests and deacons. Soon we will have more parishes and missions than priests or deacons to serve them. The only way by which the Lord Jesus will give us more clergy is if we pray for an increase of vocations, deliberately and intentionally. Please pray and work for an increase of vocations to the Sacred Ministry. Almighty God, give us priests!

CONTINUATION OF PRESIDING BISHOP'S EPISTLE

Immediately following Synod, I made an episcopal visitation and gave Confirmations at Christ the Redeemer Church, Warner Robins, Georgia on 4th August. Then followed the Anglican Joint Synods – Polish National Catholic Church Dialogue Meeting held at All Saints' Cathedral (PNCC) in Chicago, Illinois from 12th to 14th August and I participated via Zoom. On the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Pontifical High Mass was offered at Saint Barnabas Cathedral Atlanta.

On the weekend of 18th August, it was a thorough pleasure to join the men and boys of Saint James-on-the-Glebe Church, Gloucester, Virginia on a fantastic charter boat fishing excursion off the shore of Virginia Beach and Yorktown and then to make an episcopal visitation and give Confirmations in the parish the next day. The feast that ensued after Sunday Mass was replete with the bluefish and Spanish mackerel caught the day before. Simply splendid.

On 24th August, I was invited to serve as preacher for the Priestly Ordination of Father Bill Dell Wall Junior at Saint George's Cathedral of the Anglican Church in America (ACA), Columbus, Georgia. This important G3 event involved clergy from all the Anglican Joint Synods Churches. On 2nd September, it was a profound honour to be asked to offer the Requiem Mass for one of our own beloved APA priests, Father Stokes Jerome Smith Junior, at Saint Francis Church in Spartanburg, South Carolina. Please pray for the blessed repose of the priestly soul of Father Stokes and for his family. Bishop Bill Perkins graciously stepped in for me at a moment's notice to conduct an episcopal visitation to Saint Matthew's Church, Riverview, Florida with the blessing and dedication of the recently renovated nave and sanctuary necessitated by weather effects.

Upcoming events for the rest of the year include: an episcopal visitation to Holy Cross Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, with a fall festival and special dinner in anticipation of the future building project; the annual Women's Retreat of the APA, at which I shall serve as retreat conductor, to be held at the Monastery of Our Lady of the Holy Spirit, Conyers, Georgia with a record number of participants; the annual international community celebration day at Saint Barnabas Cathedral Atlanta; participation in the Diocese of the Central and Western States Synod via Zoom; an episcopal visitation to Saint Alban's Church, Joppa, Maryland; the Perseus Men's Conference at Saint Francis Church, Spartanburg, South Carolina, at which I shall serve as a keynote presenter; an episcopal visitation to Saint Peter's Church, Kingsport, Tennessee with the consecration of the church with mortgage burning; a Eucharistic Festival Day and episcopal visitation at Saint Paul's Church, Melbourne, Florida; an episcopal visitation to Saint Gabriel's Church, Coral Springs, Florida with the consecration of the new church building; and an episcopal visitation to Saint Michael the Archangel Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

It remains the most sublime happiness of a lifetime to provide pastoral care and support to and for you, to travel throughout our country, to visit and cheer as many of our churches and faithful as possible, and to witness in person the vitality and advancement of our Communion. Together we are continuing to manifest and enlarge the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church in her Anglican expression. Please continually pray for our clergy, people, and parishes. We are pressing on the Kingdom! Please remember you are welcome to contact me personally at any time on 404.313.9448 or bishopchjones@anglicanprovince.org. Each of you abides ever in my love and prayers. God bless you!

In Our Blessed Lord,

+ Chad

Global Missions

Visit to the Indigenous Pastorale of the Anglican Province of America in Ecuador (IPAPAE) August 14 - 21, 2024

On August 14, 2024, the APA team consisting of Bishop David Haines, the Very Rev. Paul Rivard, and the Worthy Endeavors translator, Dr. Matthew McBurney, traveled to Quito, Ecuador for an episcopal visit to the churches there.

On August 15, Bishop David broke ground and blessed the site for a new church (Mount Sinai Anglican Church) for the Kichua migrant community in the Quito area. Following the ground breaking the Bishop celebrated Mass and preached at the temporary facility that the congregation currently uses as a church.

On August 16, the team met first at the home of the Vicar General for the IPAPE, the Very Rev. Luis Alberto Tuaza, in in Riobamba before traveling to the community of St. Isabella in the Canton of Guamote to review and bless a cistern project that was funded by Worthy Endeavors. In the afternoon, Bishop David met with the clergy at the Cathedral in Guamote and taught a class on the History of Anglicanism in North America that the group had requested. In the early evening, the team visited St. Theresita church and community in the Guamote area before returning to Riobamba for the night.

On August 17, the team visited St. Paul's Anglican Church in the community of Gramapamba where Fr. Paul baptized five individuals, Bishop David preached and confirmed fourteen young people and the Rev. Canon Carlos Ayol celebrated the Mass in Kichua. A community meal followed the service and the team attended a church board meeting to discuss several issues of concern for the local community.

On August 18, the team attended the principal Mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Family in Guamote, where Bishop David preached and ordained the Rev. Gustavo Mendez Aldas to the Sacred Order of the Priesthood and Fr. Luis Alberto Tuaza celebrated the Mass in Kichua and Spanish using the 1928 BCP. Following the service, the team enjoyed a celebratory meal with the clergy and attendees and then the bishop and the team met for a clergy conference to discuss a number of issues that had arisen in the Pastorate.

On August 19, the team got to visit the market in Riobamba and relax a little before preparing for the journey back to Quito and to the USA scheduled for Tuesday, August 20. The APA team arrived back in Atlanta in the early hours of August 21.

Upcoming DCWS Synod—October 11-12, 2024

The Diocese of the Central and Western States Synod meetings will be held on the 11th and 12th of October. They are excited to return to an in-person synod this year! Christ Church Anglican, Florence, Kentucky, has graciously agreed to be the host parish for the year. The vestry and planning committee have started the planning process and more information will follow soon. Bishop Giffin wishes to thank Fr. John Longcamp, Heather Grothaus, Sr. Warden, and Christ Church Mission Committee for their willingness to have Christ Church serve as host parish!
